

YTC CRITICAL THINKING RUBRIC- AUT 121 – Jamey Abercrombie

	Advanced - 4	Competent - 3	Developing - 2	Elementary - 1	Score ____
Identify	The student is able to identify the exact condition of the tires and determine if they need to be replaced.	The student is able to identify the general condition of the tires but not accurately determine if they need to be replaced.	The student is able to identify major tire problems but cannot determine if they need to be replaced.	The student cannot identify the condition of the tire.
Gather	The student asks detailed questions about the driver, the type of car driven, and the types of roads that are driven on.	The student asks a few questions about the driver, the type of car driven, and the types of roads that are driven on.	The student does not ask many questions about the driver, the type of car driven, or the types of roads that are driven on.	The student does not ask the vehicle owner any questions.
Examine	The student uses all of the information gathered and determines which information is the most important; reflects on the problem.	The student uses most of the information gathered and determines which information is the most important.	The student uses some of the information gathered and determines which information is the most important.	The student does not use the information that was gathered.
Formulate	The student uses the internet or phone calls to locate all the dealers that sell the tires that are wanted. The student then is able to compare prices and availability to make a decision.	The student uses the internet or phone calls to locate the tires that are wanted. The student then is able to make a decision.	The student locates a dealer that sells the tires wanted but does not know what to do next.	The student is unable to locate the tires or formulate a plan to buy them.
Apply	The student is able to make an appointment with a tire dealer, discuss payment options, and bring the car in to have the tires installed.	The student is able to make an appointment with a tire dealer and bring the car in to have the tires installed.	The student is able to make an appointment with a tire dealer but has problems following up on the entire process.	The student is unable to make an appointment with a tire dealer.
Evaluate	The student is able to determine if the tires perform as expected; takes time to reflect on the process; determine what was learned and how improvements can be made.	The student is able to determine if the tires perform as expected; determine what was learned; reflect on the process.	The student may be able to determine if the tires perform as expected; takes a small amount of time to reflect on the process; does not learn very much from the process.	The student does not evaluate the data or have justification for the results. The student takes no time to reflect on the process.

--	--	--	--	--	--