Are You A Legal Resident of the United States?

The South Carolina Illegal Immigration Reform Act (S. C. Code Ann. #59-101-430 (Westlaw 2008) prohibits those unlawfully present in the United States from attending a public institution of higher education in South Carolina and from receiving a public higher education benefit. The College may require submission of documentation that supports the claim of legal presence in the United States. Any applicant providing false information related to their legal presence in the United States may be ineligible for admission or may be dismissed from the College if admitted. Any applicant who is found to be unlawfully present in the United States will be ineligible for admission or if admitted, will be dismissed from the College.

Are You A Legal Resident of South Carolina?

In accordance with the South Carolina Code of Laws 59-112-20, York Technical College is required to determine the residence classification of applicants at the time of admission. To qualify for in-state tuition and SC State scholarship assistance, a legal resident must have maintained his/her domicile in South Carolina for at least 12 months immediately preceding the first day of classes for the term for which resident classification is sought. Students who do not meet this requirement should contact the Admissions Office for more information on exceptions and for a copy of the SC Code of Laws governing residency. In addition to the requirements above, legal residents of SC must also be either U.S. citizens or have been awarded permanent resident status by the U.S. Department of Justice.

The information the student declares will be used for calculation of tuition each semester until the student initiates and documents the change in residency status. Students paying in-state tuition and fees who are later determined to be non-South Carolina residents will be required to pay the difference between resident and non-resident tuition and fees retroactive to the beginning of the semester in question. The burden of proof resides with the student to show evidence, as deemed necessary, to establish residency. Students are responsible for informing the College of any temporary or permanent changes in residence.

Students have the option to opt out of the bookstore process and purchase books and supplies from off-campus sources. To use this option, students must visit the Financial Aid Office prior to December 9, 2011 and complete the Opt-Out Bookstore Request Form. By choosing this option, financial aid funds will not be available in the campus bookstore. Students who chose this option will be sent a book allowance on January 29, 2012.

How Do I Protect My Schedule?

Students must do one of the following by the payment due date:

- Pay tuition and fees in full
- Have sufficient financial aid awarded and accepted to cover the full cost of tuition and fees
- Be actively enrolled in a Nelnet Payment Plan

How Do I Change My Schedule?

Adjusting a Schedule

The Schedule Adjustment period is the first two days of a semester or mini-session. Students may work with advisors for schedule adjustments for unique situations.

Dropping a Class

Drop period is the first five days of a semester and the first three days of a mini-session. Students should work with advisors or Academic Records to make approved schedule adjustments.

Withdrawing from a Course

Students may withdraw from a course after the drop period until mid-term with a grade of "W." Students must obtain a Withdraw from Class form from their instructor or division office. A grade of "W" is assigned if the student's last date of attendance is on or before mid-term. If a student is withdrawing from a course and the last date of attendance is after midterm, the grade assigned may be a "W" (non-punitive) or a "WF" (punitive).

Withdrawing from the College

Students who find it necessary to withdraw from the College should first consult with their advisor. Students must apply for an official withdrawal in the Counseling and Support Services Office in Student Services.

How Many Credit Hours Can I Take?

The schedule for a full-time day student may range from 12 to 40 hours of class and/or laboratory hours per week. To complete an associate degree within two years generally means taking five to six courses each semester. Students who wish to carry more than 18 semester credit hours should receive the approval of their advisor.

Does Past Due Indebtedness Affect Me?

Students with past due indebtedness are not allowed to obtain grades, a transcript, diploma, degree or certificate or to enroll for any subsequent term. The College may cancel the enrollment of a student with past due indebtedness; however, this does not relieve the student of the incurred debt.

What Are the Refund Policies?

POLICY: College Refund Policy

It is the College's policy that students or appropriate sponsoring parties receive a fair and equitable refund of tuition charges upon withdrawal or reduction of course load. Tuition charges for a semester term will be refunded at the following rates:

RATES: % Withdrawal or Net Reduction of Refund of Credit Hours

1st - 7th calendar day of the term	100%
8th - 14th calendar day of the term	75%
15th - 21st calendar day of the term	50%
22nd - 28th calendar day of the term	25%
After 28th calendar day of the term	0%

NOTE: Refunds for terms that vary in length from the semester term will be in proportion to the semester term refund schedule delineated above. Contact the Business Office for specific information for each semester.

Students reducing course load or withdrawing from the college prior to the 29th calendar day of the semester are entitled to a prorated refund less the $20 registration fee (mini-terms will be prorated in proportion to the length of the mini-term). Prorated refunds are computed from the last date of class attendance. No cash refunds will be made. The refund process takes approximately two weeks.

POLICY: Federal Refund Policy

Students receiving a Federal Pell Grant, FSEOG funds or Direct Stafford Loans who completely withdraw from a session are required to return a portion of their unearned aid to the appropriate Title IV aid program. Students earn their aid based on the period of time they remain enrolled. Students who remain enrolled beyond the 60 percent point earn all of their aid for that period. If at the time of withdrawal, all funds have not been disbursed, a student will be reviewed and if applicable, the student will be offered a post-withdrawal disbursement. Students who owe funds to a Title IV aid program will be billed and are not eligible to receive any additional Title IV funds until the amount owed is repaid or satisfactory repayment arrangements are made. Each session is considered separately. Please contact the Financial Aid Office for more detailed information.

POLICY: State Aid Programs

Students receiving the LIFE Scholarship, Lottery Tuition Assistance (LTA), or the South Carolina Need-Based Grant (SCNBG) who completely withdraw from a term will be reviewed based on the College refund policy.

What Is Distance Learning?

WHAT? Distance learning classes are the same as classes taught on the main campus except for the method by which they are delivered.

WHO? Students who are self-motivated, self-directed, and independent learners will benefit from this form of instructional delivery. Admission, registration, and tuition are the same as for classes on main campus.

TYPES There are four types of distance learning:

- Teleclasses
- Telecourses
- Hybrid Courses
- Online Courses

INFO Distance Learning Questions
gdewey@yorktech.edu

Teleclasses

NOTE: Teleclasses are live, two-way, audio/video interactive classes. The instructor can be located at the main campus or one of the off-campus centers.

The location codes in the left column will enable students to determine instructor's primary location. The codes are:

- TCRHH Teleclass and instructor on Rock Hill campus
- TCRHR Teleclass on Rock Hill campus, but the instructor will not be primarily located in Rock Hill
- TCCH Teleclass and instructor at the Chester Center
- TCCR Teleclass at the Chester Center, but the instructor will not be primarily located at the Chester Center
- TCKH Teleclass and instructor at the Kershaw/Heath Springs Cntr.
- TCKR Teleclass at the Kershaw/Heath Springs Center, but the instructor will not be primarily located at the Kershaw/Heath Springs Center
- TCH Teleclass where the students are located on a high school campus and the instructor will be located at the College's main campus or one of the off-campus centers.

Telecourses

NOTE: Telecourses are designed for home and off-campus use and contain the same content as an on-campus course. Most telecourses are text-based courses. Some telecourses come with prepackaged DVD's.

Students would need to come on to main campus or one of the off-campus centers to take exams and/or complete projects. If a student has attended but missed multiple assignments, they will be withdrawn when he/she has missed ten percent or more of the assignments.

Hybrid Courses

NOTE: Hybrid courses consist of a combination of traditional face-to-face instruction and online instruction which alters the class schedule.

Students should expect to meet some classes and/or labs on campus in addition to using a computer for instruction. Some hybrid classes have synchronous instruction (specific day and time to log into the site) while most have asynchronous instruction.

The location codes in the left column will enable students to determine the site where the face-to-face portion of the course will be located. The codes are

HYBRH Face-to-face offered on the main campus in Rock Hill

HYBC Face-to-face portion of the course offered at the Chester Center

HYBK Face-to-face portion offered at the Kershaw/Heath Springs Center

Online Courses

NOTE: Credit online courses are taught on the internet using Desire2Learn (D2L). Students enrolling in an online course must have completed WEB-100, or have a grade of "C" or higher in a previously completed internet course at the College. Some basic internet skills are necessary to be successful in online courses. Many online courses require students to take their tests in the Assessment Center on campus or in an approved proctored environment off campus.

INFO: www.yorktech.edu/Distance_Learning/index.php.

Work-Based Learning

NOTE: Work-Based Learning integrates classroom study with hands-on experience.

INFO: Ashley Segal (803) 981-7244
asegal@yorktech.edu

Do I Need To Take WEB 100?

NOTE: WEB-100, a 3- to 5- hour, free, online tutorial, is a prerequisite for all students taking an online course. The course is optional for students who have already completed an online course at the College with a grade of "C" or higher. WEB-100 helps students:

- TOPICS
- determine if online learning is right for you
 - discover how online classrooms work and what is expected in an online class
 - navigate D2L, the software that delivers your online class, and its tools
 - succeed in your online classes

SIGN UP Log into WebAdvisor, click on Students, and then "Sign Up for WEB- 100" (located under registration). Click Submit and OK. You will have one week from the date you sign-up to complete the short readings and exercises. You will complete several assignments, including an assessment called SmarterMeasure.

The link to SmarterMeasure is found in WEB-100 along with the username and password. Once completing SmarterMeasure, you will have several other assignments in D2L. All assessments and assignments must be completed in order to complete WEB-100.
